Issue

“To pray constantly only for ourselves is a mark of failure in prayer. It is in intercession for others that our faith and love and perseverance will be stirred up and that the power of the Spirit will be found to equip us for bringing salvation to people.” – Andrew Murray

“Our prayers may be awkward. Our attempts may be feeble. But since the power of prayer is in the one who hears it and not in the one who says it, our prayers do make a difference.” – Max Lucado

“But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.” –
Jeremiah 29:7

“God shapes the world by prayer. The more praying there is in the world the better the world will be, the mightier the forces against evil.” – Mother Teresa

“Prayer should not be regarded as a duty which must be performed, but rather as a privilege to be enjoyed, a rare delight that is always revealing some new beauty.” – E.M. Bounds

“Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it.” –
John 14:12-14

Several weeks ago, the high school students who attended CIY Move in Arkansas this summer were given the opportunity to share about their experience at Upper Room. I have three thoughts I'd like to share with you about this. First, I would again like to thank everyone who came and listened to our students, and I'd like to thank all of you for supporting the students and sending them on this trip, it was a great experience for them.

Second, I'd like to encourage everyone to participate in Upper Room. If you're not attending, you're missing a wonderful opportunity to be blessed and to be a blessing to others. I'm in my twentieth year at PCC. I've been involved with many different programs and events here. Upper Room, in my opinion, is one of the best. It's difficult to overstate its value. If you're not coming, please make it a point to come next time and have a really great evening with your Father and sisters and brothers.

Finally, I'd like to ask you again what I asked of you that evening: please continue praying for our students. Before we left, Justin asked each of you to pick one student who was going on the trip and pray for him or her. And I can assure you that it was obvious from the first evening that you all were faithfully praying for our students. Great things happened in their lives. But now they have come down from that mountain top experience and they are back home. Back to the same fears, doubts, temptations, distractions and every other thing that makes living out our faith difficult. But that is exactly what they want to do. They want to know Jesus, to live like Him, and to be transformed into His image. So, please continue to pray for them. My challenge to you is to pick one student, from nursery through high school, and pray for him or her regularly this school year. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective. We saw that at CIY. Help our students see that in Chickasha.

Joseph
